AMERICAN IMMORTALS

Jefferson, Jackson, Lincoln Extolled
By Their Disciples.

COLUMBUS BANQUET A BIG SUCCESS.

Women Graced the Festal Board
And Silver-Tongued Orators Participated in the Symposium.
Tributes Lofly and Eloquent.

Columbus, O., Feb. 12.—Amidst scenes of splendor the ninety-second anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, the martyred president, was beautifully commemorated in eulogy, and in story in this city tonight. Men known to fame eloquently extolled the virtues and vividly recounted the illustrious deeds of the great commoner of more than a generation ago before an audience majestic in proportions that had assembled at the vast Columbus Auditorium on the occasion of the first banquet tendered by the celebrated Jefferson-Jackson-Lincoln league. Incidentally touching tributes were paid to the memory of Jefferson and Jackson, the two giants of Democracy and patron saints of the league.

The great banquet hall was a bower of beauty, the national colors, flowers and potted plants, all appropriately blended, greeting the eye at every turn, while above the stage, whereon were seated the speakers and distinguished guests of the evening were suspended pictures of heroic size of Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln. Around the tables in the auditorium were seated the members of the league and their guests to the number of 1,800. A large number of women graced the occasion with their presence, their bright costumes making a pretty setting to the splendid scene. From the galleries a host looked on. Besides the distinguished speakers, there were in attendance many persons prominent in the councils of Democracy from over Ohio and other states. The speakers were at their best, the menu modest but wholesome, the music inspiring and everything passed off without a slip or flaw. All in all it was the greatest political banquet ever tendered in the state and probably in the whole country.

Promptly at 6:30 the banqueters filed into the big hall to the strains of a spirited march, and as soon as all had been seated and welcoming words spoken, an onslaught was commenced on the following:

Lincoln Memorial Services.

New York, Feb. 12.—Carnegie hall was filled with people who had assembled to commemorate the ninety-second anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth, the proceeds of the meeting to go for the benefit of the Lincoln Memorial university at Cumberland Gap, Tenn. Mark Twain presided. Seated with him on either side of a bust of Lincoln were speakers, General Joseph Wheeler, Professor Charles Roberts, Major General John R. Brooke, General Nelson A. Miles, Colonel Henry Waterson, General O. O. Howard and General James O. Beltrine. A letter of regret was read from President McKinley.

At Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—Banks, board of trade, the stock exchange, the courts and other public institutions were closed in honor of Lincoln's birthday. The chief event of the day's exercises was the public memorial meeting in the G. A. R. memorial hall under the auspices of the Grand Army Memorial Hall association. Addresses were made by local speculators. Various Grand Army posts, as well as other organizations held commemorative meetings in various parts of the city during the day. Others were held in the evening.

At Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—The ninety-second anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln was observed in this city with appropriate ceremonies. All the big business houses and many private residences throughout the city were appropriately decorated. In the schools a formal program was observed, consisting of exercises calculated to acquaint the children with the life of Lincoln.

At St. Louis.

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—In honor of Lincoln's birthday, the Merchants' Exchange and the Stock Exchange were closed. The Cotton Exchange transacted business as usual, the banks and local trust company offices were also open. Special exercises were held in the public schools in honor of the great emancipator.

SUPREME HOPEFULNESS.

British Sprint Looking Up a Little
Once More in London.

London, Feb. 12.—A very curious sentiment is prevalent in London relative to the condition of affairs in South Africa. It is one of supreme hopefulness. There has never been any such buoyancy of sentiment since Lord Roberts took Pretoria. There is absolutely no doubt that news has reached here from German sources that the Boers are pretty well at their last stand. This view is also taken on the stock exchange.

Dewet's Movements.

London, Feb. 12.—A special dispatch from Pretoria says General Dewet crossed the Orange river north of Norvalspont Sunday night going in the direction of Philippstown. The British are following.

Japan's Minister Milled.

New York, Feb. 12.—Over 375 members of the Silk Association of America and their guests sat down to the twenty-ninth anniversary banquet of the association at Delmonico's. The conspicuous guest of the evening was the Chinese minister, Wu Ting Fang, who made a characteristic address. The Japanese minister, Kogoro Takahira, was introduced to respond to the toast, "Japan and Her Estimation of American Ideas." He read his address from manuscript in a sing-song tone, which caused laughter. The toastmaster rapped in vain for order, whereupon the minister threw his paper to the floor and indignantly sat down. Three cheers were given the offended man, who then appeared to be somewhat mollified.

British Steamer Grounded.

London, Feb. 12.—The British steamer Spartan Prince from New York Jan. 29, for Naples, Genoa, etc., is reported ashore at Ceuta, opposite Gibraltar, at the entrance to the Mediterranean sea. Assistance was sent.

Queen Sophia Getting Well.

Stockholm, Feb. 12.—Queen Sophia, who has been suffering from an attack of la grippe, is still confined to her bed, but the fever which accompanied the illness, has disappeared.

SULZER HAD HIS SAY.

Personally Backs Anonymous Attack
On Perry S. Heath.

LETTER STRICKEN FROM THE RECORD

Appropriation For St. Louis Exposition Shunted—Batch of Bills Run Through the Senate—Proceedings in the House and Senate.

Washington, Feb. 12.—In his invocation Chaplain Conden referred to the anniversary of the birthday of Lincoln, the emancipator, and prayed that his life might be an example and inspiration to those now living.

As soon as the journal was read and approved the struggle over the question of expunging from the Record the anonymous letter reflecting upon Mr. Perry S. Heath, which was read at the instigation of Mr. Sulzer (N. Y.) during the exciting session Monday was resumed. The letter appeared in the Record Tuesday morning. Mr. Knox (Mass.) called up the alleged infringement of the privileges of the house. He claimed that the matter was before the house in two ways: First, as unfinished business; second, as a matter appearing in the Record, over which the house had control. Mr. Knox said he admitted that a member might upon his own responsibility charge any sort of offense against a man not a member of the house and not be liable to be called to account, yet he contended that when a member introduced a paper the house obtained jurisdiction. He asked the house to adopt a resolution which rectified the occurrence and directed that the document be stricken from the record. Mr. Knox consented to strike out the preamble and was about to demand the previous question, but at the request of Mr. Sulzer yielded five minutes to the New York member. Mr. Sulzer said he was at a loss to understand the anxiety to protect the character of Perry S. Heath, who was not a member of the house, while his party associates were exulting delightedly in the attack upon his personal character and reputation. "I stand here," he continued, "and say that no man in this house can charge me with any offense whatever, or with any misconduct. My life is an open book, and when the gentleman from Pennsylvania attacked me I felt justified in smoking out the culprit who was responsible for the charges. And I did smoke him out." Mr. Sulzer shouted with arm upraised. "I had the courage to stand here and say that I was responsible for every word in that letter. If Mr. Heath thinks there is anything libelous or scandalous in that letter I will plead my constitutional privilege. I will plead the truth of the statements. A former member of this house said to me 'The man who wrote that letter knew Heath like a book; every word in it is true.' I have no objection to striking the letter from the Record. But I serve notice that I am going to say everything in that letter, and I want Perry S. Heath to answer. If he does he will be fit for the pen. I want him to understand that I am responsible in damages for what I say. The house has no compunction of conscience when he attacks me, but when I attack him he squeals like a pig under a gate. I got that letter in the Record. That was what I was after. I am now content to have it stricken out." Mr. Knox's motion to expunge the letter from the permanent Record was adopted without division.

Mr. Tawney (Minn.), chairman of the special committee on St. Louis exposition, tried to get up the exposition bill, but Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, declined to allow it to come up until the pending appropriation bills were out of the way, and accordingly the house went into committee of the whole and took up the consideration of the army appropriation bill. It was arranged that the general debate should run three hours. Mr. Hull, chairman of the military affairs committee, made a brief explanation. The bill carries $117,994,649, $12,355,133 less than the estimates.

In the Senate.

In the senate a joint resolution authorizing the removal of certain letters from the files of the department of the interior and the donation to the state of Iowa was adopted. A bill was passed appointing a commission, consisting of the president of the Society of the Army of Tennessee, the chairman of the joint committee on library and the secretary of war, to select a site in the city of Washington and have designs prepared for a memorial or statue of General U. S. Grant, the cost of which shall not exceed $250,000. Other bills were passed as follows: To establish a fish hatchery and fish station in Utah, to cost $20,000; authorizing the Indiana, Illinois and Iowa Railroad company to construct and maintain a bridge across the St. Joseph river at St. Joseph, Mich.

The agricultural appropriation bill was called up by Mr. Proctor, chairman of the committee on agriculture. It carries $4,503,920, the increase proposed by the senate committee being $158,820. The reading of the bill in full was demanded by Mr. Sullivan (Miss.), Mr. Proctor having objected previously to the consideration of a bill Mr. Sullivan had called up.

LOCKED OUT.

Silk Workers on Strike Refuse to Accept Compromise Offer.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 12.—The strike of the 4,000 silk workers in Scranton has resolved itself into a lockout. The mill owners and managers declare they will not reopen their mills until the girls are willing to resume at the figures offered nearly two weeks ago and in which there was a concession of 25 cents a week to each employee.

The strikers are determined to stay out until their demands are granted.

Must Pay the Tax.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 12.—The Michigan supreme court handed down an opinion affirming a judgment that franchisees received from the city are taxable. The decision was in the case of what is now the Detroit United Railway company, the corporate name of the consolidated street railway systems of the city against the common council of Detroit. Last year the assessment of the railway company was increased from $2,600,000 to $8,142,100, on the assumption that its franchises were taxable. The circuit court confirmed this action and the case was then carried to the supreme court.

Depends on the Decision.

Columbus, O., Feb. 12.—Governor Nash was in conference with Adjutant General Gyger, and a telegram was sent to General McMacken at Cleveland, ordering him to adjourn his court martial until Monday. This is taken to mean that the adjournment is to relieve officers so that they will be available for use at Cincinnati Friday night if necessary. In private conversation Governor Nash indicated his attitude toward the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight would be determined by Judge Hollister's decision.

Gush of Oil.

Hartford City, Ind., Feb. 12.—An oil well, which has a flow of more than 7,600 barrels a day and has already inundated five acres of land with petroleum was struck in the Blackford county field, six miles northwest of here. Contractors claim the well is a crevice freak and that the enormous output cannot be maintained any great length of time. Tanks are being erected to save the oil.

Tariff and Cigarettes.

San Juan, P. R., Feb. 12.—The effect of the tariff law is that cigarette orders have decreased. The Porto Rico-American Tobacco company is closing up, discharging 150 employees. It is reported that others will shortly follow its example and shut down until stocks of dealers are consumed. Then they will run at half force. As the demand has permanently lessened the output probably will be smaller proportionately.

Dawson Murder.

Seattle, Feb. 12.—The teamer Dolphin has just arrived from Alaska with news that George T. St. Cyr a member of a well known Canadian family has been found guilty at Dawson of murdering H. Davis and has been sentenced to the gallows. An attempt will be made to secure a new trial. In case of failure an appeal will be taken.

Topeka Becomes a Port.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The navy department has received a cablegram from Commander Delano of the training ship Topeka announcing his arrival at Barbados. The Topeka recently sailed from Cape Verde and apprehension was felt in some quarters as to her safety.

Madrid, Feb. 12.—The government has suppressed the Republican organ El Pais.

BOQUET FOR FORAKER.

Ohio Republican League Favors His Return to the Senate.

ANNUAL CONVENTION AT CLEVELAND.

Resolutions Indorse National and State
Administrations and Say Foraker
Is Already Renominated in the Hearts of Ohio Republicans.

Cleveland, Feb. 12.—The sixteenth annual convention of the Ohio Republican league was called to order in the assembly room of the Chamber of Commerce. President Morrow briefly reviewed the work of the organization during the past year, saying that nearly 1,300 Republican clubs were organized in the state during the presidential campaign of 1900. The report of the secretary showed the league to be in a good financial condition. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, D. Q. Morrow of Hillsboro; first vice president, Edward B. Bope of Findlay; second vice president, John D. Dewitt, Cincinnati; third vice president, J. B. Reed, Cleveland; fourth vice president, W. P. Coates, Cleveland; secretary, H. V. Speelman of Marietta; treasurer, W. H. Sefton of Mt. Vernon.

The resolutions adopted by the convention warmly indorse the administration of President McKinley and the policy of the Republican representatives in the senate and house. Senators Foraker and Hanna are praised for their "splendid statesmanship and patriotism." The resolutions declare that "Senator Foraker is already nominated in the hearts of Republicans of Ohio for re-election to the United States senate." The administration of Governor Nash is commended and the resolutions pledge the league to assist in securing his renomination and election.

King George Starts Home.

London, Feb. 12.—King George of Greece has started homeward. King Edward, the Duke of Cornwall and York, Prince Charles of Denmark and the members of the Greek legation in London accompanied him to Victoria station where a guard of honor was in attendance. The route from Buckingham palace to the station was lined with cheering crowds. After the king of Greece had bidden farewell to the others, he and King Edward entered a saloon carriage and embraced each other kissing each other on both cheeks. The train started in the midst in the rendering of the Greek anthem and hearty cheering.

Columbia's New Minister.

New York, Feb. 12.—Among the passengers who arrived on board the steamer Allegheny from Seville was Carlos Martinez Silva, minister of the United States of Colombia at Washington. He is accompanied by his secretary, Thomas Hernan, and his son, Hernando Martinez and Thomas Hernan, Jr. The minister and his party will stop in New York a few days before proceeding to Washington.

Perfect communication between the two points has since been established.

Croney of Crockett.

Mattoon, Ills., Feb. 12.—Mitchell Reed, 90, a pioneer resident of Effingham county, is dead at Elliottstown. He was a native of Knox county, Tenn. When 6 years old his parents took him to Jacksons, in the Cherokee Nation, and he grew up among the savages, becoming a trader and intimate of Davy Crockett, the noted frontiersman. Reed came to Illinois in 1836.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 12.—A search of all the department of this commonwealth fails to confirm the story published in Louisville to the effect that John L. "This will be the fate of all negroes who assault white women."

The above is the inscription on a card found pinned to the body of the negro George Carter, who was hung by a mob at Paris Monday morning. It is no longer a question that such a fate or even a worse one awaits every such criminal.

If the Ledger had hold of that cold wave prophet he would never experience anything but hot weather hereafter.—Public Ledger.

The trouble with the Ledger is that it published a cold wave forecast just two days after it was received here. The cold wave forecast was displayed at the postoffice shortly after noon last Saturday and the Ledger had its black flag flying Monday.

McKINLEY'S CHOICE.

Will Appoint Cochran Federal Judge if He Follows His Personal Inclinations.
Sharp For Marshal.

[Enquirer.]

Hon. John F. Hager, the able Ashland (Ky.) attorney, is at the St. Nicholas, attending the Federal Court.

"I was in Washington, D. C., recently," remarked Mr. Hager, "and from what I could learn the President, if he follows his personal inclinations, will appoint Judge A. M. J. Cochran, of Maysville, who has a splendid line of endorsements, to our new Federal Judgeship. Congressman Pugh has some strong political backing, and it remains to be seen if the President has backbone enough to appoint Cochran.

"Judge Tinsley, of Barboursville, to all appearances will be appointed District Attorney. Then will come the surprise. Captain Steve Sharp, of Lexington, an ex-Confederate soldier and a life-long Democrat until a few years ago, will, I understand, be appointed United States Marshal. That selection was left to Senator Lindsay, who was on the Judiciary Committee and piloted the bill creating the new court through the Senate, and he has, I was informed, recommended Sharp.

"The Republican applicants for the Marshalship are Colonel Dan Collier, Adjutant General under Bradley and Taylor, who was a Colonel of cavalry in the Union army, and Colonel Coles, of Ashland, who was a delegate to the National Republican convention in 1896 and voted for McKinley, forfeiting the friendship of Governor Bradley."

LYING TO THEMSELVES.

Why Should Not the Imperialists Take Cuba Without Further Ado?

[Philadelphia North American.]

If the imperialists are going to take from the Cubans some part of their rights as freemen, let them do it at once without any more hypocritical cant. It is refreshing to find a man of the courage of the Secretary of War, who declares that the Constitution is "obsolete." Why not get rid of the Teller resolution in the same easy fashion? The imperialists will gain nothing by lying to themselves any longer. They fooled the Cubans and the world three years ago, and have derived much satisfaction from the compliments about the pure-mindedness and unselfishness of the United States in rescuing the down-trodden people from oppression. But why should they now recall the fact that in April, 1898, they solemnly lifted their hands to heaven and lied? It would be better to gloss that little matter over. Let it suffice that these imperialists favor taking Cuba because the United States has the power and because it will pay to take it. The Cubans may object, but how does that concern us, who have a duty to discharge to ourselves?

THE SCOTTENS.

Men Who Made Money Manufacturing Tobacco.

Started Out With Only a Dozen Hands Employed—Secret of Their Success.

[The Weed, Louisville.]

The people of Michigan are "pushing a good thing along." Well knowing it is to their best interest to build up the independent factories the trade in that State is giving the greatest encouragement to the new Scotten-Dillon Company and the consumer is calling for their excellent brands with an avidity that says he likes them. Every State paper has said a good word for the company and no doubt now exists success is theirs. Detroit Trade had this to say in its last issue:

"A few months ago Mr. Oren Scotten and Mr. Dillon, with other business men, formed the new concern of the Scotten-Dillon Company and obtained possession of the old plant. With characteristic enterprise they have picked up the threads of manufacturing where they were dropped when the trust stepped in, and are prepared to carry forward the business exactly as it existed when Mr. Daniel Scotten was alive.

"For thirty-four years Mr. Oren Scotten has been in the tobacco business. When he first took charge of the old works twenty-four years ago there were eight stemmers employed, boys and girls. There were only four more people besides himself in the entire plant. He fired his own boiler, ran his own engine, cut every pound of tobacco that was used for the first two years.

"With an enormous capacity for work, Mr. Oren Scotten has kept his finger tips upon every detail of the business from the start, and consequently is able to know exactly what goes on in every department of their great concern as well to-day as he did twenty-four years ago, when less than a dozen people were on the pay roll. Twenty-three years ago, when in Louisville, Mr. Oren Scotten became acquainted with Mr. Dillon, then a mere boy, and found that he was a natural superior judge of leaf tobacco. His services were retained for Daniel Scotten & Co., and during all these years he has been in charge of the manufacturing end of their business. Consequently these two men, one with great business energy and skill, without which all enterprises must come to naught, and the other with the natural gift of discriminating between grades of tobacco, enhanced and made more useful by the many years of experience in one of the largest concerns in the country, are peculiarly adapted to take up the work and push it to still greater success than ever crowned the efforts of Daniel Scotten & Co., of which they were practical managers.

"The present plant covers nearly six acres of ground, and with the same army of skilled employees, who formerly earned their means of livelihood at the Daniel Scotten works, everything is moving forward without a hitch under the direction of the Scotten-Dillon Co., who were the active heads of the old concern, as indicated above.

"The success of the new tobacco firm of Scotten-Dillon Company is already established beyond the possibilities of failure."

SIDEWALKS.

Liability of City for Injuries Resulting From Construction in Absence of Defect.

In affirming the ease of Teager against the city of Flemingsburg the Court of Appeals says:

First—The construction of a sidewalk by a city with a step, free from defects, which from the nature of the grade of the streets was deemed by it necessary and proper, is not of itself such negligence as will warrant a recovery of damages by one injured in a fall caused by the step, unless it appears that the plan adopted of making the step was palpably unsafe to travelers.

Second—The determination of the necessity for making the step should be left to the discretion of the governing or legislative body of the city, subject to control by the courts in cases of such manifest error or mistake as would indicate a failure to consider or a purpose to misconstruct the work.

In Social Circles.

Miss Hunt of East Third street entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. R. P. Binzel, of Beaver Dam, Wis., and Miss Mentz, of New York, who have been spending a few days with Mrs. E. H. Binzel. The diversions offered were four, five and six hand euchre, followed by a luncheon and a sparkling discussion of current events, domestic and foreign.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

We were correct when we said a while since that we did not intend having dull January and February business. To be sure, there is no profit, in fact in many instances there are losses on our sales; but we have always had a great weakness to close out one season's stock before the next season comes in, hence

OUR STOCK IS ALWAYS FRESH AND NEW!

There still must be a good many people who have not availed themselves of securing "our kind" of Clothing at the cut prices we are now selling at. Why not come in and buy an Ulster or Overcoat at a price that will

SAVE YOU AT LEAST ONE-THIRD of the money you will have to pay for it next winter? What an excellent opportunity now to buy a Stein-Bloch or Adler Suit, medium weight, one that you can wear nine months out of the twelve, and buy it for less money than you buy ordinary goods for. We will be benefitted in turning these goods into money,

BUT YOU WILL BE VASTLY MORE BENEFITTED

in buying them. Were we addicted to fake advertising, that so many Clothing men resort to, viz: the fellows who advertise $10 Suits for $3.98, we would embellish more. The truth needs no embellishment; you know we only advertise and sell "straight goods."

WEDDED AT ST. PATRICK'S.

Marriage of Mr. Cornelius Fulton and Miss
Sudie Larkin Tuesday Morning.

Tuesday at 7:30 a. m. St. Patrick's Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when, to the soft strains of Mendelssohn's march, (rendered by the talented Miss Nellie Clarke) Mr. Cornelius Fulton led to the altar Miss Sudie Marie Larkin.

The attendants were Miss Nellie Burke, of Mayslick, and Mr. Sweeney Guilfoyle, of Needmore.

The bride looked a picture of loveliness and simplicity in a gown of brown cloth, with applique trimmings, hat and gloves to match. Miss Burke was very stylish in a gray cloth costume.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Larkin, of "Camp Kenton," and is a most estimable young lady. Mr. Fulton is a prosperous young farmer of Needmore.

After the solemn and impressive ceremony by Rev. A. T. Ennis the bridal party drove to the home of the bride, where the wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Larkin were the recipients of a number of useful and beautiful presents.

For the Farmer.

The outlook for the wheat crop in Madison County is very discouraging. A large shortage is expected.

Twenty-five hundred mules and twelve hundred horses were shipped Thursday from New Orleans to South Africa by the British government.

The mule trade is very active. A few days ago twenty buyers from as many Southern States were in Columbia, Tenn., making purchases. They bought in one day five hundred head.

The great improvement and profitable prices now being realized by farmers for both mules and horses has greatly encouraged interest in these animals. Breeders should realize this fact by liberally advertising their horses and jacks in THE WEEKLY BULLETIN and by cards. We are well prepared for the latter work, and will fill orders on short notice.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS....

Hundreds testify to the wonderful efficacy of.....

BOND'S

ASTHMA, HAY FEVER and RHEUMATISM

CURE

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treacherous diseases. At the first symptom take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good results.
